

List and explain the JavaScript methods that enable us to select elements from the DOM.

There are six ways to select DOM elements in JavaScript. They are `getElementById`, `getElementsByTagName`, `getElementsByClassName`, `getElementsByName`, `querySelector`, and `querySelectorAll`. The first four are pretty self-explanatory. The latter two return elements from the passed selector. (<https://www.educative.io/answers/what-are-the-different-ways-to-select-dom-elements-in-javascript>)

What is your favorite thing you learned this week?

My favorite thing I learned this week is how to find elements. It's a fast and handy tool enabling rapid search results.